Beyond Ordinary

THAT '70  SHOW

THAT '70s CSB SHOW

“The CSB can do it all. From in your face Tower of Power-style brass virtuosity to subtle symphonic nuance, The CSB delivers.”

Matthew Zimmerman, Wild Sound Minneapolis

“Beyond good stage presence and an engaging rapport with the audience, this group is seriously good. The ensemble is tight, and pitch-perfect. Everyone blends well, and it is clear the musicians enjoy playing together.”

Jim Shearer, New Mexico State University

A night of bell bottoms and brass! Join The CSB as they cover popular 70's music from three decades: the 1770's, 1870's, and 1970's! From the big wigs of Mozart to the big hair of STYX, music from the 70's is covered in a whole new way. This show has been a huge hit with audiences of all ages, truly featuring something for everyone to go home singing!

This show features The CSB covering famous classical and opera music as well as rock and pop tunes on trumpets, trombone, horn, tuba, keyboard, guitar, drums, and unique electronic brass instruments. This one-of-a-kind concert features music from the 1770's and 1870's including music from Mozart and Brahms to popular selections from Bizet's Carmen. The CSB goes big with innovative and fun covers of 1970's rock and pop tunes by Fleetwood Mac, John Lennon, STYX, James Taylor and Led Zeppelin. Joining the quintet to rock out on drums is Twin Cities virtuoso percussionist Reid Kennedy.
